DETAILED ACTION

1. Examiner acknowledges that the applicant has withdrawn claims 31-35.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1-30 & 36-62 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Gudjonsson et al (U.S. 6,564,261 B1).

4. As per claims 1, 18 & 36 Gudjonsson disclosed a method for providing contact list management in a chat session, comprising: providing access to a first contact list by a second chat session participant, said first contact list associated with a first chat session participant and said second chat session participant associated with a second contact list; and providing access to said second contact list by said first chat session participant (col.24, lines 32-43, col.25, lines 6-20 & col.27, lines 36-44).

5. As per claims 2, 17, 20, 37, 52, 55 & 60 Gudjonsson disclosed the method according to claim 1, further comprising the steps of: determining whether said first contact list is modifiable by said second chat, session participant; and if said first contact list is modifiable by said second chat session participant, permitting the modification of said first contact list by said second chat session a participant (col.25, lines 6-20 col.26, lines 59-67 & col.27, lines 1-4).

6. As per claims 3 & 38 Gudjonsson disclosed the method according to claim 2, wherein said modification step comprises the step of adding contact information to said first contact list 9col.27, lines 36-44).

7. As per claims 4, 5, 6, 7, 21, 22, 34, 35, 39, 40, 41, 42, 56 & 57 Gudjonsson disclosed the GUI according to claim 31, further comprising a first modifiable status icon which indicates whether said first contact list is accessible and, if said first contact list is accessible, whether said first contact list is modifiable (col.25, lines 6-20 col.26, lines 59-67 & col.27, lines 1-4).

8. As per claims 8 & 43 Gudjonsson disclosed the method according to claim 7, further comprising the steps of: permitting the selection of said displayed icon for said first contact list and said displayed icon for said second contact list by a third chat session participant having a third contact list; comparing said selected first contact list and said selected second contact list to said third contact list; and displaying contacts that are uncommon to said selected first contact list (col.4, lines 31-33, col.29, lines 64-67 & col.30, lines 1-16), said selected second contact list and said third contact list according to results from said comparing step (col.26, lines 40-58).

9. As per claims 9 & 44 Gudjonsson disclosed the method according to claim 8, further comprising the step of: displaying contacts that are common to said first selected contact list, said second selected contact list, and said third contact list according to results from said comparing step (col.30, lines 15-29).

10. As per claims 10, 24, 26, 27, 45, 59 & 61, 62 Gudjonsson disclosed the method according to claim 9, further comprising the steps of: permitting any of said first chat session participant, said second chat session participant and said third chat session participant to modify any of said first contact list, said second contact list and said third contact list (col.27, lines 36-44) according to results from said comparing step col.26, lines 37-58); and permitting any of said chat session participants associated with said contact list to reject said modification (col.25, lines 6-20).

11. As per claims 11, 12, 47 & 46 Gudjonsson disclosed the method according to claim 7, wherein if said display icon indicates that said first contact list is not modifiable, further comprising the step of requesting said first chat session participant to allow said second chat session participant to modify said contact list (col.25, lines 21-42).

12. As per claims 13-16, 19, 23, 25, 29, 28, 30, 48-51, 53, 54 & 58 Gudjonsson disclosed a method for providing contact management to parties engaged in a chat communication session, the method comprising: providing access for a first contact list having contact records to a second participant to the communication session, said first contact list associated with a first participant to the communication session, said second participant having an associated second contact list with contact records (col.26, lines 30-50); identifying similar contacts between contact records located in said first contact list and contact records located in said second contact
